Weird there are not reviews so far. This bundle gives you a great discount comparing usual patron price so only problem here is if you are sure you are going to play this game for year, opening it every day to at least get your key - which is one of most valuable things patron status will give you. Additional APVSP is real handy for new players but then is real handy for people doing Dark Agartha daily. And you get it with what, 75% of full price if I count right. (for cheap countries even less, real steal) Cool outfits and sprint are neat bonus..
